Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-13, drawn to a lateral flow reading device, classified in class 422, subclass 55, for example.
- II. Claims 14-24, drawn to a system for conducting a lateral flow assay, classified in class 435, 288.7, for example.
- III. Claim 25, drawn to a method of conducting a lateral flow assay, classified in class 435, subclass 7.1, for example.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are patentably distinct products. The reading device of Group I is patentably distinct from the system of Group II because they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are not disclosed as capable of use together because the device of Group I is recited as being a detector for the test strip recited in claim 12; and the system of Group II includes a test strip that is not the same with that recited in Group I.

Inventions I or II and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with either the device of Group I or the device of Group II, which device is materially different from each other.

Art Unit: 1641

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, and because the search required for Groups I-III are not coextensive, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. The inventions of Groups I, II and III have separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, therefore searching any combination of the invention of Groups I, II and III together would be burdensome.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

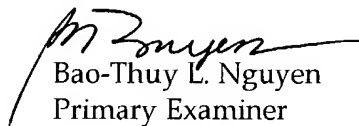

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Bao-Thuy L. Nguyen whose telephone number is (571) 272-0824. The examiner can normally be reached on Tuesday and Thursday from 8:00 a.m. -3:00 p.m..
